REGULATORY BULLETIN

MT-17-01

DATE: May 31, 2017

TO: All Arizona Licensed Money Transmitters

FROM: Robert D. Charlton, Superintendent

RE: Check Cashing Transactions of $1,000.00 or more

The Arizona Department of Financial Institutions has discovered through recent examinations of some licensed money transmitters,

(1) a failure to collect and retain a record of the type and number of the customer's photographic identification and current occupation (the "Customer Identifying Information") when cashing a check of $1,000.00 or more; and

(2) a failure to maintain adequate policies and procedures for the collection of the Customer Identifying Information when cashing a check of $1,000.00 or more.

"Transmitting money" is the transmission of money by any means, including by "payment instrument" or otherwise. A "payment instrument" includes a check. All licensed money transmitters must collect and retain the records required in A.R.S. § 6-1241.E when cashing any check of $1,000.00 or more and pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-1241.G, must maintain records of their policies and procedures that promote compliance with the recordkeeping requirements of A.R.S. § 6-1241.E.

All licensed money transmitters must immediately review this area of their operations to ensure that proper records are being collected and maintained.
